Jr. Fair Dairy General Rules & Regulations

1. Exhibitors must wear white collared shirt and pants and appropriate shoes. This is in addition to the regular livestock dress code rules.
4. All animals must be clipped before the week of fair.
5. All lactating dairy cows and cattle that have come from out-of-state within 30 days of the fair must have been T.B. tested.
6. Any yearling, dairy project that has freshened will show in junior 2-year-old class.
7. Champion of each breed will be selected.
8. No males of any breed will be shown.
9. Lactating cows may arrive and leave the day of the show but the exhibitor must have at least one heifer on display the whole week of the Junior Fair to be eligible to show a lactating cow. Dry cows must stay on exhibit all week.
10. Classes listed in the fair book may not necessarily be the show order.
11. All dairy exhibitors will be responsible for securing their own dairy product to sell during the sale.

The Steve Brock Memorial Award for outstanding dairy showman will be awarded to a dairy showman who has exhibited outstanding qualities in the dairy division. The award will be presented at the grand showman of showmen contest by the Brock Family.
