Jr. Fair Dairy General Rules and Regulations

1. Exhibitors must wear a white collared shirt and white pants and appropriate shoes. This is in addition to the regular livestock dress code rules. See General Fair Rules (rule 4) for more information.
2. All dairy cattle must be purebred.
3. All animals must be clipped before the week of the fair.
4. Alteration of any animal is not permitted. This includes, but is not limited to, paints, dye, powder, non-clear adhesive, foam, or shoe polish. Also banned are artificial tail heads, switches, polls, hair, and heels. It is prohibited to administer, feed, give, or inject any substance or drug to an animal exhibited, except when, medically necessary or when the drug used has an been approved for such use by the Food and Drug Administrations or US Department of Agriculture.
5. All lactating dairy cows and cattle that have come from out of state within 30 days of the fair must have been T.B. tested.
6. All lactating cows will need to have a DUNF turned in at fair check-in.
7. Any yearling dairy project that has freshened will show in the junior 2-year-old class.
8. Champions of each breed will be selected as well as an overall supreme grand and reserve dairy animal (could be heifer or cow).
9. No males of any breed will be shown.
10. Lactating cows may arrive and leave the day of the show, but the exhibitor must have at least one heifer on display the whole week of the Junior Fair to be eligible to show a lactating cow. Dry cows must stay on exhibit all week.
11. Classes listed in the fair book may not necessarily be the show order.
12. All dairy exhibitors will need to declare at check-in if they are wanting to be included in the sale. No dairy item/cheese tray will be sold at the sale as stated by the Sales Committee. See General Fair Rules (rule 16) for more information.
13. Exhibitors must show in showmanship in order to be eligible to sell in the dairy sale. See General Fair Rules (rule 16) for more information.
14. No round bales of any kind will be permitted in the dairy barn.
15. Due to space limitations, tack spaces will be assigned by the dairy livestock committee.
16. Animal and tack stall assignments are assigned by the dairy livestock committee members and are not to be changed without approval from the committee members. Exhibitors must check for correct stall assignments before putting down bedding or tack. Incorrectly placed bedding or tack will need to moved to the correctly assigned area.
17. All stalls and aisles must be cleaned by 9a. Stalls and aisles are to be kept clean throughout the day. See General Fair Rules (rule 8) for more information.
18. Each animal is highly encouraged to have two forms of tie outs, such as a neck rope and a rope halter, at all times when tied in the stall.
19. Only two animals per class can be shown by any exhibitor unless it is a breeding champion class. A current junior fair exhibitor must show the second animal.

20. All dairy exhibitors are subject to the general rules and regulations sections of the fair book.

21. All animals must meet the health requirements set forth by the Senior Fair Board, state, and federal guidelines and law.

22. At the request of the dairy livestock committee, registrations papers may be needed to show proof of breed and age for the breeding show.

23. Exhibitors are to check their showmanship and breeding classes they listed in for accuracy at fair check-in.

24. At the request of the dairy livestock committee, exhibitors may be required to furnish cattle for the Grand Showman of Showmen contest.

25. The winner of the Dairy Showman of Showmen will participate in the Grand Showman of Showmen contest. See General Fair Rules (rule 16) for more information.

26. Any broken rules or regulations could forfeit the exhibitor from participating in the dairy project the following year.

Steve Brock Memorial Award

The Steve Brock Memorial Award for outstanding dairy showman will be awarded to a dairy showman who has exhibited outstanding qualities in the dairy division. The award will be presented at the Grand Showman of showmen contest by the Brock Family.

Eligibility

1. Any current Madison County Jr. Fair Dairy Exhibitor is eligible. Winners will be eligible every other year.

2. A selection committee will be utilized each year to pick the winner.

3. The winner will be determined but not limited to, by the following criteria.

- Willingness to help others
- Good sportsmanship/exhibitor
- Advancing the knowledge of the dairy project
- Animal care given during the fair
- Interview of exhibitor at skill-a-thon
